This elegant 2 Bedroom condominium within the prestigious and meticulously maintained Ravensworth estate offers a tranquil living experience. Boasting a thoughtful and fully renovated layout, this residence features a wealth of amenities designed to cater for your every need. You will be immediately drawn to the spacious main lounge room connecting to the Victorian style tiled balcony overlooking the Goulburn lighthouse. The high Ceilings include beautiful lead light lampshades from the Palm Springs resort in Bundanoon. This retreat offers the utmost privacy and indulgence, complete with as well as conveniently located parking space. Breathtaking views of the lush green hedged compounds and towering coniferous trees right from your balcony and bedroom windows really make this space something special. On either side, two generously proportioned bedrooms are equipped with ample built-in robes and shelving to accommodate all your storage needs. A well-appointed main bathroom on this level features a shower, vanity and toilet, ensuring convenience for both residents and guests. The practical kitchen has been designed with functionality in mind. Featuring electric cooking and splash tiles with backlighting. A spacious living area with an abundance of natural light adds to this property's charm. Unwind and bask in the picturesque scenery of the surrounding Great Dividing Range. This sanctuary styled retreat is perfect for hosting small cozy gatherings or simply enjoying peaceful moments of solitude while being surrounded by nature. This Condominium includes an internal laundry and additionally, a single-car parking space providing secure parking.
