Delivering a total footprint of approximately 95.8 sqm of indoor-outdoor bliss, this stunning parkside apartment exudes prestige, affluence and an unrivalled standard of living. Located down a peaceful, no-through road with parkside positioning by the serene Sir William Fry Reserve, stunning green surroundings and the sights and sounds of nature all around. With a resort-style pool and a gym with sprawling garden outlooks on its fabulous list of highlights, this sensational address brings a touch of first-class living to cosmopolitan Highett, where a lifestyle of ease and convenience awaits. Combining simplistic, high-end design and eco-friendly inclusions: ducted reverse cycle air-conditioning, beautiful engineered oak flooring, quality blinds, exquisite stone surfaces, square-set cornices, and expanses of floor-to-ceiling double-glazing attracting abundant natural light. Secure parking & storage unit (on title), CCTV security, video intercom and high-speed lift access. Comprising two large bedrooms with generous robes - the impressive master suite with a study or reading nook, large corner robes and a sleek, fully-tiled ensuite. Bedroom two closely serviced by the main bathroom and a separate laundry room is a rare commodity you'll appreciate. Easy living flows through the expansive living, dining and gourmet kitchen with 60mm stone waterfall-edge breakfast bar, boundless storage and a full suite of elite ASKO appliances including a wall oven, induction cooktop, rangehood and a dishwasher; flowing out to an undercover and well-protected balcony entertaining, with the Sir William Fry Reserve sitting just beyond the building's end.. Imagine a life where the vibrant Highett Village and Southland cafes, bars & shops; city trains and local buses, along with beautiful beaches and picturesque Bayside walking trails skip along natural cliff-face just beyond the front door. This elegant beauty is truly something to behold in its uncompromising approach to supreme livability.
