Immerse yourself in coastal elegance with this exceptional two-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment perched on the hillside of Tweed Heads. A delightful sanctuary for couples or individuals seeking a 'lock and leave' lifestyle, this property is the epitome of beachside charm without the beachfront price tag. Perched upon the fourth level of an exclusive five-apartment complex, the residence offers 360° panoramas encompassing the Gold Coast skyline, the tranquil Tweed River, and the lush hinterland. Witness nature's grandeur with breathtaking views equivalent to those on the fifteenth floor of the beachfront towers. The apartment presents a well-kept space ripe for a bespoke renovation or to be cherished as is. Light floods every corner thanks to the favourable northern aspect, ensuring a bright living environment throughout the seasons. Building amenities elevate the living experience further, featuring a ground pool with an updated lounging deck and bathroom facilities. Additionally, a communal rooftop entertaining terrace for residents beckons with its covered dining area and kitchenette, perfect for unforgettable sunrise breakfasts, sunset soirees, or taking in the spectacle of New Year's Eve fireworks. Rarely does a chance to secure a full-floor residence in this sought-after enclave present itself. At just 450 metres from the shores of Rainbow Bay and the iconic Snapper Rocks surf break, this apartment is the quintessential haven for those desiring a blissful, low-maintenance coastal life. Seize the opportunity to claim your slice of paradise in one of Australia's most beautiful locations.
