Situated in a quiet, leafy street and surrounded by quality homes, this beautiful Hampton style unit located at the back of a recently and extensively renovated complex is a fantastic opportunity for chic inner city living. Enter the unit through striking front doors leading into the living room which boasts newly polished Black Japan floors and air conditioning with a capacity to cool or heat the entire unit. Enjoy the near new kitchen with shaker style cabinetry which also includes a dishwasher, electric stove, oven and a stone-topped breakfast bar. The bedroom can be found adjoining the living room and includes wardrobes, ceiling fan, block-out blinds and ethereal curtains. The near new bathroom features a subway tiled shower and a stunning Moroccan tiled floor. The living opens through french doors to the oversized louvered deck perfect for entertaining alfresco style or to take a nap on a lazy Sunday afternoon. Adjust the louvers to enjoy the landscaped leafy surrounds and immaculate lawn or close for complete privacy. A private laundry area is located on the deck and communal coin-operated laundry facilities are also available on the building premises. Discover numerous cafes scattered near this poets' corner precinct or stroll down for a picnic lunch at Wilson Park. Complete the day with drinks at the local bowls club or hop on the cross river ferry to New Farm and explore, all within a short walk. Positioned in a central local under 6k drive to the city and only a 10min walk to the ferry or bus, 13min walk to the train, 4-6min drive to the Morningside shops, Hawthorne cinemas and Oxford St.
