THE GREAT BARRIER REEF - LADY MUSGRAVE ISLAND The town of 1770 is the closest point to the Southern end of the Great Barrier Reef, providing easy access to the additional activities that the world famous Great Barrier Reef has to offer. No need for stinger suits here. The Southern Great Barrier Reef is very safe. No crocodiles and no deadly marine stingers. Lady Musgrave Island and Lagoon is a true coral cay situated only a 75 minute boat trip from the Town of 1770. The island is set on 3000 acres of living reef with a 1000 acre coral lagoon that is unique to the entire Great Barrier Reef. It's the only coral island & navigable lagoon of its kind on the Great Barrier Reef. A vast, calm, turquoise lagoon with white sandy beaches and native Pisonia forests.
