Beautifully blending house-sized proportions across an easy-care allotment, this single-storey unit embraces a private setting where a compelling combination of space and modern practicality presents perfect for young families, first-timer buyers or retirees. A distinctive floorplan keeps three light-filled bedrooms, including the master retreat with walk-in robe and ensuite, to the front before opening across the rear to offer a completely private social domain. Enlightened with first light, the open plan living, dining and kitchen features comfortable proportions and a practical layout complete with island bench, Westinghouse underbench oven and gas cooktop. Private gardens extend a pop of colour to the neutral living zone while a glass slider makes indoor-outdoor unity easy. With space for young children to roam or green thumbs to potter, this private outdoor zone complements additional features including a double garage with internal access, gas ducted heating, roller blinds throughout and an address within walking distance to John Paul College, the Beach Street shops and public transport.
