The property has had the windows replaced and has been recently refreshed with:

- All surfaces painted
- New premium carpet
- New lighting
- New blinds
- New vanity and shaving cabinet
- Recently replaced oven
- Balcony balustrades recently replaced

It enjoys a private, leafy outlook and a desirable northwest corner aspect with windows on three sides and just one common wall. The good-sized living and dining area leads to a covered balcony flooded with natural light. This superb home is conveniently located moments from Neutral Bay shops, cafes, and restaurants, with only one traffic light to the city.

- Located on Level 4 of the 'Fairmont' security building
- Lift access with only three apartments per floor
- Open-plan living with a covered north balcony overlooking Anzac Park
- Two double bedrooms with built-in robe in master and leafy outlooks
- Spacious bathroom with separate shower and bath
- Internal laundry with linen cupboard and communal storage facility
- Undercover car space plus allocated visitor parking on-site
