Three Levels of Luxury and Panoramic Views

Offering a rare opportunity to elevate your lifestyle to the penthouse level, luxury and design collide in perfect harmony in this masterpiece of architecture. Sprawled across two levels, and coming with its own private rooftop terrace, this home will dazzle and delight from sunrises to sunsets.

Stepping into the first level, the immaculate finish on the open-plan living, dining and kitchen sets an immediate tone of style. Pristine ocean views flood in through the wide glass doors, which saturate the space in natural light and highlight the coastal hues and the chic design ethos.

The penthouse's gourmet kitchen is an entertainer's dream, coming with premium appliances, sleek cabinetry, and a statement island bench. It overlooks the air-conditioned dining and living area, and there's an easy flow out to the wraparound balcony with its breathtaking views, a perfect spot for alfresco dining.

There's a bedroom on the lower level, perfect for guests who will love their private balcony and easy access to the sparkling bathroom with separate bath and shower. A solid staircase with glass balustrades leads to the second level, where you'll find three more generous bedrooms, two with built-ins. The master suite comes with a walk-in robe, split system aircon and spectacular ensuite bathroom, while a third bathroom services the other bedrooms.

Each bedroom has glass door access to the magnificent balcony, where you have a birds eye view of Forster's stunning beaches, the lake and the centre of town. The views are enhanced by glass balustrades, and there's an inbuilt barbeque perfectly suited to long evenings in the fresh air.

The outdoor splendour of the home continues, with a staircase leading to the rooftop terrace. 360-degree panoramic views await in this setting fit for intimate gatherings or moonlit soirees under the stars.

The sought after complex is just moments from both the beach and the centre of town and comes with incredible features, including a lap pool. Is you're looking for serenity and sophistication wrapped up in a lifestyle of inimitable style, this one is for you. Get in touch with the JKL team today!
