An inviting, rustic three bedroom one bathroom home flooded with natural light was built with solid brick and stunning hardwood floors. Across from a park and playground, this impeccable example of vintage Australian craftsmanship is in walking distance from all of your shopping needs, restaurants, cafes, schools, tram stops and train station. Featuring a full kitchen and pantry with a personal back door area and front garden for your outdoor relaxation needs, the working fireplace in the open plan living/dining area creates an unmatched atmosphere of what a home means to you.
