Great option for first home buyers, investors or downsizers, with this independent home on its own land. With two good sized bedrooms, open plan kitchen and dining area and a separate lounge area with street views. Recent renovations include upgraded kitchen fully tiled bathroom and an efficient reverse cycle AC unit there is little to do but move in and enjoy. In addition, this free-standing home provides the owner space for gardening and other outdoor activities. Just a short walk away is the Hemming St shopping strip where you'll find businesses catering to the everyday needs of the local population. At the end of the shopping strip, you'll find Dandenong West Primary School. Alternatively, the home is about a 15-minute walk to the Dandenong Market in Clow St or the Dandenong Shopping centre opposite. Dandenong railway station is a similar distance from the front door. Regular bus services along Hemming St can aid in any journeys to these destinations reducing the load on your own vehicle. Main Features Central Location, Newly renovated Split system AC unit Free hold title and No body corporation Good access to Dandenong, Dandenong Railway station & Dandenong West Primary School Handy to other public transport
