George Ferrier from Harcourts Alliance Real Estate would like to present this quality finished, Two bedroom and one bathroom home with the added bonus of new paint, new carpets and carport parking for your convenience. Operated by Baptistcare and set in Perth's eastern hills with a picturesque and peaceful backdrop, don't delay in viewing the peaceful Yallambee village in Mundaring. Surrounded by a mix of native bush and tended gardens, Yallambee Village combines the serenity of a natural setting with home comforts to create a relaxing place to live. You will feel part of the local community at Yallambee. The residents say the relaxing bush setting is one of the most appealing features about living at Yallambee. But if you want to keep busy, there are plenty of activities to choose from. Our attractive, spacious common areas include a large function room that caters for a wide variety of social activities. In addition to our own beautiful gardens, tranquil and relaxing settings, you can also enjoy our convenient location which is within walking distance to the Mundaring village shops, cafés and library. This property is for sale as a Lease for Life Contract.
