Bali comes to Four Mile Beach at this perfectly positioned Asian-inspired villa that is nestled within the exclusive "Surya" gated community, a stone's throw from the beach. Built over two levels, this spacious and breezy poolside villa could be your perfect home or home away from home that captures the essence of life in the tropics. Stairs from the secure onsite parking garage (parking for two cars) lead directly to the front door that opens into the main open plan lounge, dining and kitchen space. With its quality tiling, crisp white decor, LED lighting and oversized timber-framed door that opens onto the large, covered patio complete with comfy daybed, this is sure to become your new favourite place to entertain family and friends or simply sit back, relax and unwind with the soothing sound of the Coral Sea in the background. While the wide range of dining options in Port Douglas will have you spoiled for choice, you can also very happily and comfortably choose to stay in thanks to the fully optioned kitchen that features an oven, four-burner cooktop, dishwasher, dual sinks, stone benchtops and Asian-inspired cabinetry including a dedicated pantry. Dine inside under the air conditioning and ceiling fans or head to the patio for that quintessential tropical experience. Style and comfort continue into the ground floor master suite that features air conditioning, ceiling fans, a walk-in wardrobe, timber sliding shutters and a large private courtyard fringed by vibrant tropical foliage. The adjoining ensuite comes complete with dual showers, a timber/stone vanity and the convenience of a separate toilet from where you can also access the full sized laundry. Upstairs, the polished timber floors and rattan lined ceilings of the large bedrooms provide both comfort and charm and are perfectly complemented by air conditioning, ceiling fans and built in wardrobes. Located between the two bedrooms, the elegant shower bathroom comes adorned with a timber vanity and polished stone countertop. Renowned for its lush tropical gardens, water features and direct access to Four Mile Beach, Surya also features a large pool and poolside cabanas for cooling off or touching up the suntan.
